

Midstream Engineer Intern

Opportunity Overview

Meritage Midstream is seeking qualified candidates to fill the role of Midstream Engineer Intern; this role will support the activities of the project engineering department to ensure that projects are completed on time and on budget and that all requisite project documentation is complete and available in a well organized and easily accessible manner.

Main Job Tasks and Responsibilities

- Manage design and construction of pipelines, terminals and truck loading racks
- Model options for system modifications, upgrades debottlenecking in order to identify the best economic solutions
- Provide technical support for terminal and pipeline operations including startups, troubleshooting and system expansions
- Provide / assist with cost estimating for projects
- Generate AFEs
- Develop and analyze options for upgrades to determine the best solutions
- Suggest optimization projects to enhance system operations and efficiencies
- Assure all company design and construction standards are met and followed
- Assure state, federal and company regulations and policies in safety and environmental areas are adhered to within area of responsibility
- Project controls / cost controls

Education and Experience

- Working on BS degree in Chemical, Electrical, Mechanical, or Petroleum Engineering
- Intermediate level desktop computer skills using Microsoft Word, Excel and PowerPoint
- Ability to interface effectively with all levels within the company as well as organizations outside the company
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- Must be willing to travel and have a valid driver's license

Location: Downtown Denver and Field Locations (Travel expected 25-50% of the time)

We are an equal employment opportunity employer.

About Meritage Midstream

Led by a team of seasoned professionals, Meritage Midstream provides oil and gas producers across North America with a full complement of midstream services. Current operations are focused on Wyoming's Powder River Basin. Services include natural gas gathering, compression, treating and processing; NGL transportation; crude oil gathering, blending and storage; handling produced and flowback water; and rail hub services for outbound crude oil and condensate.

We put our customer's critical business concerns first and act as a strategic partner. Meritage has the financial support and expertise to act quickly and decisively, enabling our customers to take full advantage of opportunities in unconventional shale plays across the country.

www.meritagemidstream.com